FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 13.

AN ABSCONDING HUSBAND. -Quite an excitement was created on Saturday at the grocery store of Mr. T. D. Bancroft, No. 258 Pennsylvania avenue, who early in the morning commenced selling his stock of groceries at greatly reduced rates, and in consequence thereof the rush of customers was overwhelming, and various were the surmises as to the extraordinary conduct of the proprietor. To-ward night he had disposed of the greater portion of his goods, and leaving the store in charge of a boy, he departed with his two children, aged four and six years. It was afterward learned that Mr. Bancroft's wife was pay ing a visit to some friends in Baltimore, and previous to her departure there was some disgreement between herself and husband. She was telegraphed for, and arrived in this city on Sunday evening, greatly distressed to find that she had been deserted. Friends of the family are making strenuous endeavors to find the whereabouts of Bancroft, but as yet have met with no succeess, - Wash. Chronicle.

EXCITING SCENE IN A NEW YORK COURT. -While the examination of Dan Noble, the prisoner in the Royal Insurance bond robbery case, was proceeding at the tombs on Monday before Judge Hogan, a scene occurred which for several minutes created the greatest sensation. A Mrs. Gilchrist was on the witness stand, and was undergoing a cross-examination with regard to her former husband, John Keene, who the witness testified was dead. She said he was her second husband, and had just finished relating the circumstances of their marriage, and the subsequent death of her husband, when the counsel, glancing towards the door of an ante-room, called "John Keene!" and the man (or the ghost, if the witness told the truth) walked forth. The episode caused the witness to shrink back and almost faint. As soon as the excitement was over the examination went on, the witness testifying she had not seen her husband for twelve years, and supposed him to be dead.—N. Y. World.
